CODE OF ETHICS

- 1) Members shall maintain the best possible standards of health and environment for their dogs, not keeping more than they can properly care for.
- 2) Stud Dogs and Brood Bitches shall be in good health and condition, and ideally free from hereditary defects.

Due consideration should be given to type and temperament before breeding a litter. Members shall strive to eradicate hereditary defects from the breed.

- 3) Bitches under the age of 15 months and over the age of 8 years shall not be used for breeding, and neither shall a bitch be bred from more than twice out of three successive seasons.
- 4) Every care shall be taken when selling puppies or older dogs, at home or abroad, ensuring that no stock is sold to laboratories, pet shops or dealers. Breeders shall also help with the re-homing of a dog, sold by them, should this become necessary.
- 5) Members are required to maintain and pass on to buyers of stock, accurate records of health, pedigree and registration documentation, as well as advice on feeding, rearing and general care for the dog.
- 6) Members will only use 'Social Media' for the promotion of the breed, and not for the selling of puppies and older stock.
- 7) Members must accept that, like people, dogs grow old and need special care and attention. They must therefore be prepared to love and care for a dog, for all its life whilst in their ownership.

DEFINITIONS OF CLASSES

(the word "dog" includes both sexes)

In the following definitions, a Challenge Certificate includes any show award that counts towards the title of Champion under the Rules of any governing body recognised by the The Royal Kennel Club. Wins at Championship shows in breed classes where Challenge Certificates are not on offer shall be counted as wins at Open Shows.

In the case of a dog owned in partnership and entered in Members' classes or competing for Members' Specials each partner must at the time of entry be a member of the Society.

In estimating the number of awards won, all wins up to and including the seventh day before the first closing date shall be counted when entering for any class i.e. Saturday 1st July 2023.

Wins in Variety classes do not count for entry in Breed classes but when entering in Variety classes, wins in both Breed and Variety classes must be counted. First prizes awarded in any classes defined as Special do not count towards eligibility.

If an exhibitor reports before the judging of a class or classes that a dog has been entered which is ineligible, the exhibitor may choose one of the following options:-

(1) WITHDRAWAL

The dog may be withdrawn from competition subject to the conditions of Regulations F.(1).19.

(2) TRANSFER

- b. For an exhibit entered incorrectly in a Minor Puppy Class, Puppy class or Junior Class, which is over age but under twelve calendar months of age, eighteen calendar months of age or twenty-four calendar months of age respectively, the Show Secretary shall transfer the exhibit to the Puppy Class, Junior Class or Yearling Class respectively for the correct breed, colour, sex, weight or height and in the event of their being no Puppy, Junior or Yearling Class to the Open class for the correct breed, colour, sex, weight or height.
- c. For any reason other than the above, the Show Secretary shall transfer it to the Open class for the correct breed, colour, sex, weight or height.
- d. If an exhibit arrives late and misses a class, even if it is the only class in which the dog is entered, the dog may not be transferred to any other class.

Stephanie Presdee (Pampardour)

I was brought up around Labradors but my love for Rough Collies started in 1975, exhibiting a dog from Silvafox lines and going on to own dogs from the Jefshire, Glenmist, Damiryan and Karibuni kennels.

I have also exhibited Borzois, Flat Coated Retrievers and Pekingese both here and abroad. I started judging at open show level in 1997. I was a founder member of the Rough and Smooth Collie Training Association and did obedience for many years.

I am a qualified professional instructor and assessor. After getting a Reserve Challenge Certificate with Karibuni Jezebel, we went to Spain for 10 years and I ran my boarding kennels and cattery.

I have gained 2 stud book numbers with both my Karibuni bitch and a Borzoi.

I have also passed judging exams for Shetland Sheepdogs. I look forward to judging your dogs at the East Anglian Collie Association.

Jo White (Mejola)

I was the typical little girl who grew up wanting Lassie. My parents promised me I could have one when I was 12 years old. A few weeks before my 12th birthday my mother came home from work and asked me if it had to be a Collie. She worked at an old folks' home and the matron there owned a Pug puppy, but due to her many holidays and travelling wanted to rehome him and we could have him straight away. So, Monty joined the family. My next dog was a Collie cross rescue who lived until the age of 12.

In 1999 I bought my long-awaited Rough Collie. I selected based on price and location and he was quite shy. I was encouraged to attend ringcraft to socialise him. He hated it. After a couple more dabbles in different lines and colours, I never knew there were 3 colours, I settled on Corydon lines.

I have now owned and shown Rough Collies for 23 years. Since 2005 I have bred 10 litters. I have sent pups to Germany, Belgium and Finland, two of whom have gained CACIBs and BOB. One is a Multi Champion. Eleven of my dogs have gained UK Stud Book numbers, two of these being owned by other people. I have had 18 Rough Collies registered in my name with The Royal Kennel Club.

Two of my dogs are UK Champions, I have 3 dogs with Junior Warrants and one who was the first Rough Collie to gain the new Show Certificate of Excellence award.

I have been judging at open shows since 2010 and have passed both the Rough and Smooth Collie MCEs. I am looking forward to judging your dogs at the East Anglian Collie Association.

  - When travelling to a show please take a moment to consider whether the route to the show is on a busy holiday route, and leave earlier to avoid increased time in traffic jams.
  - If your vehicle is not air-conditioned seriously consider whether travelling to the show is a good idea at all.
  - The vehicle should be as fully ventilated as possible, and plenty of stops should be taken, with lots of water available to drink.
  - Ensure your dog is not sitting in full sunlight. There should be plenty of free flowing air around the dog.
  - When at the show, never leave your dog in the vehicle.
  - Keep the dog in the shade - take your own shade for example a large umbrella and always have plenty of water available to drink so your dog stays well hydrated.
  - Avoid your dog taking part in unnecessary exertion, or from standing in exposed sunlight for extended lengths of time.

Remember, if you feel hot your dog is very likely to feel much hotter and dehydrated, and this could lead to dire results. Please look after your dog's welfare.

WARNING: IF YOUR DOG IS FOUND TO BE AT RISK FORCIBLE ENTRY TO YOUR VEHICLE MAY BE NECESSARY WITHOUT LIABILITY FOR ANY DAMAGE CAUSED.

17. Anyone whose dog is entered at a Royal Kennel Club licensed event should take all reasonable steps to ensure the needs of their dog(s) are met, and should not put a dog's health and welfare at risk by any action, default, omission or otherwise. Breach of Royal Kennel Club Regulations in this respect may be referred to the Board for disciplinary action under The Royal Kennel Club Rules and Regulations. The use of pinch collars, electronic shock collars, or prong collars, is not permitted at any show licensed by The Royal Kennel Club. This shall apply at the venue or within the precincts of the show.
18. Not for Competition entries will be accepted. Details of each dog so entered must be recorded on the entry form and must be Royal Kennel Club registered.
19. No modifications will be made to the schedule except by permission of the Board of The Royal Kennel Club, which will be followed by advertisement in the Canine press wherever possible.
20. The Committee of the E.A.C.A. does not hold itself responsible for any loss or damage to persons, dogs or property whilst entering or leaving the venue. Upon this understanding only are entries received.
