It is a Royal Kennel Club requirement that exhibitors display the exhibit/bench number or other identification on their crate, cage or container at all times. This is particularly important when cages etc are not on benches and at unbenched shows.

Each exhibitor is responsible for providing their own crate or cage identification and should note that the original exhibit/bench number card, as provided by the show society, must not be used for this purpose.

Exhibitors and spectators are reminded that just as Afghan Hound Club of Wales has a responsibility to ensure the health and safety of all those attending their event, all those present have a duty and responsibility for their own safety.

They are therefore expected to take the greatest care to avoid guy ropes, uneven surfaces and other hazards, which are inevitable and integral elements of a dog show.

Those bringing and using portable items of equipment such as folding chairs, trolleys, cages and grooming tables also have a responsibility to ensure that their tools, equipment and collapsible furniture is used and erected safely and does not constitute a hazard to others.

Exhibitors are also reminded that they should wear appropriate clothing and footwear for the prevailing conditions on the site.
