Miss Rita Monkhouse "Cabaret" Special Beginners Class - Dog

Miss Rita Monkhouse was probably the most successful exhibitor and breeder of the pre-Second World War era. Her kennel affix of "Cabaret" was synonymous with such famous Dalmatian names as Ch. Cabaret Croftcock and Ch. Cabaret Copyright who helped shape the Dalmatian breed as we know it, both winning consistently at the highest level. She joined the North of England Dalmatian Club in 1926 and almost immediately placed a proposition before the AGM that a "Special cup" be offered for competition at the Liverpool show, to be won by Livers only. Miss Monkhouse judged extensively in the U.K. and also in America where she judged the famous "Morris & Essex" show. She was elected onto the Committee of our Club in 1946 and elevated to the position of Chairman in 1961 which she held until 1974 when she was made President of the club. Rita Monkhouse was also the editor of the British Dalmatian Club newsletter for 12 years and was also a Vice President and District Rep. for that club. Miss Monkhouse died suddenly in 1975 but left a legacy of sound breeding that can be traced through to many of today's lines.

Mrs Monica M. Davidson "Konavlje" Special Beginners Class - Bitch

Monica was born in Manchester in 1922 and trained as a cartographic draftsman on leaving school. When war broke out she enlisted in the WRAF becoming a Corporal. She was stationed at Marlowe and was a keen swimmer and rower. One of her feats was to dive from the bridge into the River Thames! She met and married Gordon Davidson and when the war was over they enjoyed travelling around Italy and Yugoslavia. The prefix Konavlje was the name of a valley in Yugoslavia famed for its beautiful women.

Their first dog was a Chow cross called Laddie who used to accompany them when they went hiking and cycling. Eventually they decided on a pedigree and the first Dalmatian arrived, a dog with the grand name of Creskeld Magnificent Michael. Monica later bought a liver spotted bitch from Dr & Mrs Piper, Greenmount Golden Glow. The first Konavlje Champion was K. Miss Gorgeous owned and campaigned by Susan Gatheral and Monica won 2 CCs with her brother, K Golden Jester. Ch Highstables Countess of K bred by Carol Pedlow and owned by Monica was to become the foundation of her many Champions.....Miss Fabulous, Creme de la Creme, Bella Figlia, K Rather Special at Luccombe, K Donna at Dalesbred, K The Wayfarer at Miragua and K Cara Nome at Kintegus.

She was a founder member of The Dalmatian Club of Scotland and served on the committee of the NEDC for many years. Passionate about the breed she took great pleasure from the many friendships her beloved Dalmatians brought her.

Mrs J Saunders (Dallydyl)

I first owned a Dalmatian in 1992 and acquired my first show girl in 1995 from the Tyrodal kennel, and another in 1999. In 2007 I added a Caprilli girl to my household. I do not breed often, having only bred 7 litters, the last two under the Dallydyl affix with my co owner Linda David. I have bred a UK Champion, an American Champion and two European Champions, I have also co owned a UK Champion and obtained 8 Stud Book numbers. I have owned 5 livers and 5 blacks, and my current girl carries all of my previous Dalmatians on her pedigree.

This will be my 5th CC appointment. I have also been fortunate enough to judge four shows in Germany, once in Denmark and the Netherlands, and in 2024 I had the pleasure of judging in Australia. I am deeply honoured to have been chosen by the NOEDC members to judge at such a prestigious show, and look forward to meeting your beautiful Dalmatians.

It is a condition of those attending this event that no filming or other forms of recording may be undertaken or any images reproduced without prior approval of the owner/exhibitors.

- Anyone whose dog is entered at a Royal Kennel Club licensed event should take all reasonable steps to ensure the needs of their dog(s) are met, and should not put a dog's health and welfare at risk by any action, default, omission or otherwise.
