SECURITY AT SHOWS

In light of recent events The Royal Kennel Club would like to issue a reminder to all Societies of the importance of security at dog shows.

The Royal Kennel Club understands that due to the nature of dog shows and the quantity of paraphernalia exhibitors bring it would be extremely difficult for show organisers to take on the issue of security alone, therefore we would reiterate the advice being given by the Police and security services, that everyone in the UK should remain vigilant and this applies to those organising and taking part in dog shows.

The importance of exhibitors feeling that they and their dogs are safe when attending a show cannot be underestimated. We would therefore remind you of the importance of the need for show organisers and exhibitors to remain mindful of potential dangers and that all visitors generally need to be vigilant and alert.

Should you see anything suspicious or of concern, please alert the Show Manager, Mrs S Leach and/ or the Show Secretary, Mrs. Mary Constable immediately. If it is a package or bag your are concerned about, please do NOT attempt to move it or examine it yourself.

Should it be necessary for the hall to be evacuated, please remember that evacuation should be as speedy but as safely as possible, as in the case of a fire. It is important that you do not block the exit routes with cages or bags and that you follow any instructions given to you by the Show Management regarding evacuation procedures.

DOGS IN VEHICLES ON HOT DAYS

PLEASE NOTE REMEDIAL ACTION WILL BE TAKEN IMMEDIATELY IN THE EVENT OF DOGS BEING FOUND IN A DISTRESSED CONDITION

Exhibitors Please Note: In accordance with Royal Kennel Club guidelines Exhibitors must display exhibit number/owner identification on their crate, cage or container at all times.
